15th Annual

PEACE through ART & WRITING CHALLENGE – 2012

For High School Students

TOPIC: The 'Occupy Movement' is raising concerns about social inequality in our country. From your perspective, are there improvements you would make and inequalities you would end within your school, community and/or nation that would help you, your family, or others? Describe.

Ideas to consider:

- Have school funding reductions affected the quality of education at your school? (class size, subjects offered, individual attention)
- Will college be affordable or even available to you? Will jobs be available in your career field?
- How is a community affected when some people have little and others much?

3 - $250 AWARDS; 3 - $150 AWARDS; 4 - $100 AWARDS

☺ Winners will be honored at an Awards Dinner on Saturday, May 12, 2012 ☺

CATEGORIES

- Essay 1,000 words or less
- Creative writing - poem, story, play
- Art - any medium
- Video on DVD
