CRAZY WISDOM SAVES THE WORLD AGAIN!
A Comic Monologue with Original Songs

Written and Performed by

Wes "Scoop" Nisker

Wednesday, February 4, 7:00 PM

Mt. Diablo Unitarian Universalist Church, 55 Eckley Lane, Walnut Creek, CA 94596

Friends! Earthlings! Humans! Who are we, why are we here, and how did we get into the mess we're in? Is there any hope for us and our species? In this comic monologue, Wes Nisker explores the foolish human condition and the joys and sorrows of living in the modern age. He will reveal the secrets of the Big Bang and anti-matter, explore the issues of war, species extinction and global warming, and expose the true heart of the New Age spiritual movement. Mr. Nisker places today's headlines in the context of biological evolution and all of human history, and thereby offers us the relief and laughter that only vast perspectives can bring. This is comedy for the rest of us.

"His performance, laced with his original songs, manages to make suffering a knee-slapper. He delivers Zen zingers with Borsht Belt timing." -- New York Times
